

Financial support is always key to keeping the Soule Homestead Educational Center open to the public. The staff is always working toward this goal with their own fundraisers.

This is a letter of support for the SHEC addressing their need of financial support. The physical support comes from those who love it.

Sincerely,

Judith C Rolt

14-0 2